

A Year of Crises: Opportunities for Change

UNITED NATIONS ASSOCIATION
Mid-Atlantic Regional Conference and
2010 UNA-USA Members' Day
Friday, February 19, 2010
9:30 AM to 4:30 PM

United Nations Headquarters
New York
Conference Room 4 (North Lawn Building)

The UN Building opens to the public at 9 AM and all visitors are required to go through a security check

Amid urgent public concerns about the world economic crisis, the dangers of nuclear weapons, and the continuing war in Afghanistan, the 2010 Members' Day will feature the following program:

Opening session, 9:45-10:30 AM

Ramu Damodaran, Deputy Director of Outreach, DPI/UN
Thomas Miller, President, United Nations Association of USA
Ambassador Ali Treki, President of General Assembly, UN
Robert Orr, Asst. Sec. Gen. for Policy Planning, UN (to be confirmed)

Afghanistan: From Ramping Up to the Exit Ramp, 10:30 AM-12:00 PM

Ambassador Cesare Ragolini, Permanent Representative of Italy to the UN
Valentin Gatzinski, Director, UN Assistance Mission in Afghanistan
Hassan Abbas, Bernard Schwartz Fellow, Asia Society
Linda Fasulo (Moderator), UN Correspondent for NBC News

Hitting the Reset Button on the Global Economy, 1:30-3:00 PM

Anita Sharma, North America Coordinator, UN Millennium Campaign
Jomo Sunderam, Asst. Sec. Gen. for Economic Development, UN
Jeffrey Laurenti (Moderator), Sr. Fellow, The Century Foundation

Turning Back the Bomb: Hard Cases and Grand Designs, 3:00-4:30 PM

Ambassador Gérard Araud, Permanent Representative of France to the UN
Geoffrey Shaw, Representative of the Director General of the IAEA to the UN
Trita Parsi, President, National Iranian American Council
Christine Wing (Moderator), Sr. Fellow, Center on International Cooperation, NYU

Register at www.unausa.org/MembersDay2010 by February 15, 2010

SPONSORS

United Nations Association of USA Southern New York State Division
UNA-SNY YPIC
UNA Connecticut Division
The Century Foundation
The Stanley Foundation
Margaret Bruce
David Cockcroft
Lee Bloom